Office of the R.L.A.

The question raised for the R.L.A.'s consideration is whether educational institutions receiving grant-in-aid from Government can allow their premises to be utilised for non-educational or political purposes.

2. As pointed out in R.L.A.'s opinion in U.R. to P.D. No. 208 Confl. dated the 23rd February 1951, grants-in-aid are bounties and it is open to Government to withhold or reduce them as it likes. It would therefore be competent for Government to refuse to pay any grant-in-aid or to reduce such grant in the event of any educational institution receiving such grants using its premises for any political or non-educational purposes. Whether that course should be adopted by framing a suitable rule for that purpose is a matter of policy which Government has to decide.
